

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead it is using the airways to try and advance their own political cause. If they are willing to do this, what is next. It is unconscionable that a company such as Sinclair Broadcast Group be allowed to act in such a reckless and obviously biased manner. We need real news and commentary., not politically motivated and false witness
Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
